DALLAS, TEXAS INFORMATION

Dallas is served by two airports, Dallas/Fort Worth International (D/FW) and Love Field. D/FW is located half-way between Dallas and Fort Worth and is served by most major airlines and is the choice for international travelers. Denver is also an international airport.

There are several hotels in Dallas close to our facility that may offer a shuttle van. There are others but these are some that students have used in the past.

Crowne Plaza 101 S Elm St, 75202 214/742-5678	Indigo 1933 Main St. 75201 214/741-7700	Fairmont 1717 N Akard, 75201 214/720-2020

Some hotels offer complimentary van service within a 3-mile radius which may include our cleaning plant. Check with the hotel for current information regarding complimentary van service.

Less expensive alternatives (no van service provided):

There are a lot of Airbnb options in our area.

Be sure to bring your "School Supplies"!

- Tape Measure
- Calculator
- Pen and paper (you already know that)
- Comfortable work clothes—we are on the floor most of the time!
- Digital camera
- A Comprehensive Guide to Oriental & Specialty Rug Cleaning (if you don't have it, one will be provided at class)

Upon your arrival at the hotel, arrange for their complimentary van service to leave each morning at 7:30 a.m. to bring you to Oriental Rug Cleaning Co., 3907 Ross Ave. and to pick you up at 5:00 p.m. each day. Class will start at 8:00 a.m. and lunch will be served each day at the plant. Class will be over on Thursday, no later than 5pm and most likely earlier.

DOWNTOWN DENVER, COLORADO

HOTELS

Expedia will give you all sorts of great options in Lower Downtown Denver. Prices vary – some are outright expensive – but quality and the surrounding neighborhoods are great. These are all located near Union Station, a vibrant neighborhood of good restaurants, bars, and shops. It's also exactly 32 minutes from the airport by light rail (train every 15 minutes) so a car is not really a necessity. A few of those hotels:

Hotel Born: Kimpton
The Crawford
The Oxford Hotel
The Maven Hotel
Native Hotel

Less expensive options for hotels that are convenient to our location (2151 W56th Ave., Denver) are as follows. Most of these are within 1-2 miles of our location; too far to walk, but a short Uber/Cab ride. Food and services near these hotels are sparse.

Clarion Hotel Denver Central
Radison Hotel Denver Central
La Quinta In Denver Central

Priced in the middle and possibly the most convenient option is the Residence Inn by Marriot 29th and Zuni street.

Located exactly three miles south of our building the Residence Inn offers a shuttle service that will take you to our place. Rooms are suites with kitchenets and sleep four. Three blocks north – all along 32nd Ave. - are about 25 diverse bars and restaurants located in an old gentrified neighborhood. 20-minute walk to Downtown.

RINO Neighborhood The 'River North' neighborhood is a gentrified area of 100 year-old warehouses filled with interesting shops, galleries, bars and restaurants. A large area one could easily spend a few hours, or an evening exploring. Hip, young, and interesting.

RESTAURANTS

I have just put names and a few comments. Read the reviews on your phone for locations and more. Some are right in the neighborhoods where you might be staying. Others are a drive but are worth the trip.

Sushi Den / Izakaya Den: Sister restaurants and the best sushi in Denver.

Sushi Sasa: Best sushi in downtown area

The Kitchen: 'New American'

Jax Fish: Surprisingly good, casual.

DUO: 'New American'

Oceanaire Seafood: Like a steak house, but with fish.

Acorn: 'modern American' cooking, good.

Tavernetta: Lower Downtown Italian, expensive and good.

Uncle: Ramen by guys with tattoos. Good, not expensive.

Rosenbergs Bagles and Deli: Good.

Prost Brewery: Authentic German brewery (really).
