You learn the basics of starting your own rug cleaning business or enhancing your existing business. There are classroom lectures and presentations as well as hands-on cleaning for the students under the supervision of Ellen, Aaron, Jennifer and Armen.

There is special emphasis on rug identification because “the best marketing tool is your product knowledge.” You will learn family secrets of how to catch rug problems even more experienced professionals might miss.

The team is available to you for consultation at no additional charge during your one-year Master Rug Cleaner Program. This is a key feature of our coaching program because when you get need advice, where do you turn? If it looks like a problem rug and you are not sure what to do, email a photo before you have a “situation”. If you have a marketing question, your team of experts is just an email away.

We focus on practical knowledge and demonstrate economical and sensible chemical and equipment packages for start-ups or to improve efficiency of an established business. One size definitely does not fit all. Talk to us before making a major financial investment.

Ellen and Aaron pioneered Oriental rug training in 1992 and have instructed over 2,900 students since. They take rug training to the next level with the creation of the Master Rug Cleaner Program with small classes, in-plant and hands-on training, personal attention, and a one-of-a-kind training manual and resource guide long after the class is over. Ellen and Aaron co-authored A Comprehensive Guide to Oriental and Specialty Rug Cleaning. Three years in the making, this book serves as a manual and mega resource that includes commonly encountered rugs, over 425 pages and 900 photographs and illustrations, and a no-nonsense approach to identification, cleaning and much, much more. The book retails for $495.00 and is included in the price of the Master Rug Cleaner Program.
